IS SOMEONE HURTING YOU?
It's not your fault. It's against the law. It affects your health and your children.

Local agencies can provide:
• support in deciding what to do
• legal advice
• counseling for you and your children
• a safe place to go if you need to leave quickly

Emergency 911
If you call police:
• get name and badge # of officer
• get police case #
• you have a right to get a restraining order
• county Legal Aid Society can help

Everyone's plan might be different.
You know what works best for you. Here are some options.

HOW SAFE ARE YOU?
Plan now where you can go if you don't feel safe.
If any of the following are true, your situation may be more dangerous.
☐ Has the violence been getting worse, more often, or scarier lately?
☐ Has your partner ever choked you, or hurt you when you were pregnant?
☐ Has your partner ever injured pets or someone outside the home?
☐ Does your partner have an alcohol or drug abuse problem?
☐ Is there a gun in the house?
☐ Are the children in danger?
☐ Does your partner know you are planning to leave?
☐ Has your partner threatened to kill you/him/herself?

IF YOU STAY
Increase safety at home
☐ try to remove yourself and children before violence begins
☐ you can ask police to remove a gun from your home
☐ in an argument avoid rooms with no exits or possible weapons
☐ avoid wearing scarves and long necklaces at home
☐ put a phone in a room you can lock, and plan an escape route
☐ tell someone – choose a signal with neighbors to call police

Increase safety for your children
☐ teach them to call 911 and know their address and phone number
☐ make a code word for them to call 911
☐ plan and practice an escape route and a safe place to go
☐ teach them not to get in the middle of a fight

IF YOU DECIDE TO LEAVE
• Leaving is a time of high risk for injury or death
• Before you leave, call a hotline for advice on your plan
• You can ask police to protect you when you leave
• DON'T TELL YOUR PARTNER BEFORE YOU GO
